Director of Mission, Ethics and Spirituality

Catholic Health International
Sante Catholique Internationale

Catholic Health International is seeking a Director of Mission, Ethics and Spirituality for St. Joseph's Hospital and Rocmaura Nursing Home in Saint John, New Brunswick. With a long history of patient and resident centred care and in the spirit of our Founders the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception, Rocmaura and St. Joseph's are now sponsored by Catholic Health International.

St. Joseph's Hospital, located in the centre of the City of Saint John, is known as a Center of Excellence for Geriatric Medicine. The hospital, with a spirituality and mission focus, is also home to a thriving ambulatory Surgical Centre, a comprehensive Breast Health Program, women's health services, various medical and surgical clinics, diagnostic and therapeutic services, an Urgent Care Centre and the New Brunswick Eye and Tissue Bank.

Rocmaura is a 150 bed, fully accredited nursing home providing 24-hour care. The Home has Recreationist-directed programming, a unique Spiritual Care and Mission focus, a proactive Resident Council and has participated in numerous provincial pilots and research in the field of Elder Care.

Reporting to Executive Director of Rocmaura Nursing Home and the Facility Administrator of St. Joseph's Hospital, the Director of Mission, Ethics and Spirituality, is responsible for spiritual & religious care, mission and ethics. The Director of Mission, Ethics and Spirituality shall work with staff at both facilities to promote the living of their respective missions. The Director of Mission, Ethics and Spirituality will supervise the spiritual & religious care, mission and ethics staff at Rocmaura Nursing Home and work closely with those responsible for spiritual & religious care at St. Joseph's Hospital.

QUALIFICATIONS/EXPERIENCE:

- A Master's Degree in one of the following: theology, ethics, spiritual care, mission, counseling, adult education, ministry, social services, or health care or equivalent, is an asset.
- Skills in group dynamics, interpersonal relationships and adult education/learning
- Endorsement by a recognized faith group.
- Superior communication and listening skills and highly developed oral and written communication abilities including interactive public speaking.
- Must be committed to the values, philosophy and mission of Catholic Health Care. Preference given to candidates who have a thorough knowledge of the Health Ethics Guide.
- Have appropriate spiritual and other leadership qualities that can be brought to contemporary, Catholic, not-for-profit organizations.
- Must be comfortable working independently, have a global perspective, and the ability to establish priorities.
- Have a record of achievement as a collaborative leader, community and team builder.

Nadia Losier, Executive Director of L'Accueil Sainte-Famille, Tracadie-Sheila, NB, was recently presented the CHANB Mid-Career award.

In May of 2004 Nadia Losier was appointed the new Executive Director of L'Accueil Sainte-Famille Inc. in Tracadie-Sheila, NB. Nadia has filled this role in an exceptional manner. She holds a Bachelor of Social Sciences from the University of Ottawa with concentration in criminology and sociology. She has continued her studies with several pertinent educational courses, training protocol regarding violence against women, criminal procedure and criminal law, training protocols on child abuse and neglect, family rights, courses in CPR and primary care, pathological manipulators, prejudice, vicarious trauma, etc. She also has completed the Catholic Healthcare Leadership program offered by Catholic Health International.

She has developed a close working relationship with many associated agencies in the Caraquet, Shippagan, Lameque, Neguac, and Tracadie area of New Brunswick. She is very well respected and has vision for future growth within the organization. She is a determined leader with a strong sense of compassion and respect for others.

L'Accueil Sainte-Famille is sponsored by Catholic Health International. CHI is very proud of the work accomplished by L'Accueil and very, very proud of its Executive Director, Nadia Losier.

What Catholic health care organizations do and how they do it are expressed in their mission, vision and values. The organization exists to continue the healing ministry of Jesus. Nadia Losier and her staff live their mission.

Congratulations Nadia!!
